Islamic Countries Young Entrepreneurs Network (ICYEN) is a global network, envisaged to provide a networking platform for young entrepreneurs from OIC member and in non-member minorities by promoting entrepreneurship and serving as a medium of exchange for innovative ideas and best practices.

ICYEN is a subsidiary of Islamic Conference Youth Forum for Dialogue and Cooperation (ICYF-DC), an affiliated organization to Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC).
24th Session of the OIC Standing Committee for Economic and Commercial Cooperation (COMCEC) in its resolution OIC/COMCEC/24-08/Res.(1) (Istanbul, October 2008) welcomed “establishment of ICYEN and called upon specialized bodies in the OIC member states to cooperate with ICYF-DC in implementation of the programs and projects aimed at the development of the ICYEN as a youth network”.

Further on, 39th Session of the OIC Council of Foreign Ministers (ICFM) in its latest resolution 8/39-C (Djibouti, November 2012) “endorsed program of ICYEN aimed at developing of youth entrepreneurship in the OIC Member States and the growth in youth employment; and called on the OIC Member States to contribute towards its development.”
ICYEN’s MISSION is to find, nurture and develop the young Muslim entrepreneurs in all Islamic countries and muslim communities in non-Islamic countries.

ICYEN’s VISION is to give professional support to young Muslim entrepreneurs for improving their competitiveness and success in Global business environments.

ICYEN’s OBJECTIVES
