Following the recitation from the Holy Qur’an, Mr. Faik Yavuz, Vice President of TOBB, welcomed all participants and emphasized the importance of the Study Visit whilst the youth unemployment draw near %30 percent in OIC Member Countries. He further stated the fundamental reasons of unemployment among youth where lacking of a profession takes the lead.

8. In his inaugural address, Assoc. Prof. Ömer Açıkgöz, Director General of Vocational and Technical Education Directorate under the Ministry of National Education of the Republic of Turkey, mentioned the overall stand of vocational education and training in Turkey by giving the relevant statistics and introducing the main institutions such as Vocational Qualifications Authority. He further stated the financial resources including national and foreign invested in the development of VET in Turkey since 2003.
9. After Assoc. Prof. Ömer Açıkgöz, Mr. Namık Ata, Deputy Undersecretary of the Ministry of Labor and Social Security of the Republic of Turkey took the floor for an opening statement. Mr. Namık Ata stated that consumption patterns are changing rapidly in today’s world and individuals adapting themselves to the changing technologies and circumstances are more fortunate than others to secure their employment in the labour market.

10. Mr. Ata continued his statement by pointing out the significance of policies that analyze and meet with the demands of the labour market. In this regard, Mr. Namık Ata stressed the importance of technical and vocational training in general and Skill 10 Project in particular as the most important tools for the policy of employment, industrial development and human capital management.

11. Dr. Savaş Alpay, Director General of SESRIC, made a statement at the Opening Session. He expressed his special thanks to Islamic Development Bank (IDB) Group, The Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Turkey (TOBB), Ministry of National Education and the Ministry of Labour and Social Security of the Republic of Turkey for their support and contribution to the organization of the study visit. He also expressed his thanks to the delegates for accepting SESRIC’s invitation and designating their time to attend the visit.

12. In his speech Dr. Savaş Alpay stated that the figures on youth unemployment in OIC countries are less promising and OIC countries had recorded higher average youth unemployment rates compared to the world average and the averages of other developing countries. In this regard, Dr. Alpay emphasized the importance of developing effective strategies, policies and programmes for combating unemployment, particularly in the segment of the young people through promoting their participation into labour market.

13. Dr. Savaş Alpay further stated that the Study Visit was organized as an initial phase of the SDYE programme with the aim of sharing and exchanging the experience of Turkey in fighting against youth unemployment through the project named “Skill 10” which provides skills training based on careful research of the needed skills of the labour market and industrial companies. Dr. Savaş Alpay, at last, shared his belief that the visit would provide an invaluable platform for systematic sharing of knowledge and experience on youth employment issues and improving the quality of OIC Member Countries’ national programmes in this important and challenging area.

14. Lastly, the Session adopted the Draft Programme of the Study Visit Meeting.

IV. WORKING SESSIONS

Working Session I: Introduction of the “Skill 10 Project”

15. The session started with the presentation of “Skills’10 Project: Specialized Vocational Training Centers Project” by Prof. Dr. Serdar Sayan, Director of Center for Social Policy Research at TOBB University of Economics and Technology. Prof. Dr. Serdar Sayan informed the participants on the framework of the Skills’ 10 Project including its importance, activities and governance mechanism as well as the importance of skill development for economic development, the role of private sector and the problem of unskilled workforce in Turkey.

(The presentation can be reached through http://www.oicvet.org/event-detail.php?id=621)

16. Following his presentation, Prof. Dr. Serdar Sayan invited participants to give their remarks at the end of the session.

17. Ms. Iftida Yasar (Indonesia, Chamber of Commerce Representative) inquired the legal status of the Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Turkey (TOBB), the entrepreneurship perspective of the project and the leading factors that enable all the stakeholders of the project to work together. Ms. Yasar further questioned whether Turkey made use of Germany’s experiences while developing the Skills’ 10 Project and the challenges that have been faced during the implementation.

18. Prof. Sayan briefed the participants that TOBB is a legal institution which has a very well defined law. He further informed that since skill mismatch is most severe in manufacturing sector in Turkey, Skill 10 project has been initially designed for manufacturing sector however plenty of courses on entrepreneurship are offered by İŞKUR and different private institutions. Regarding the stakeholders of the project, the local head of National Employment Agency, secretary general of local chamber of commerce and local director general of the Ministry of National Education come together every two weeks within the framework of Skill 10 Project. As for the challenges, Prof. Sayan mentioned that the number of interested participants who registered to the courses was lower than the expected amount. He, eventually, pointed out the successful elements of German vocational education system which Turkey has been trying to adopt.

19. Mr. Ahmad Hamada (Egypt, Ministry of Education Representative) shared the experiences of Egypt in vocational education and training. Mr. Hamada stated that Egypt is also in need of skilled people as well as projects in the field of service sector. He further mentioned that Egypt has collaborated with Italy to establish new vocational schools on tourism in order to meet the needs of the skilled workforce in tourism sector.

20. Mr. Hassan Abdelaal (Egypt, Ministry of Manpower Representative) inquired about the assistance provided to participants of Skills’ 10 Project courses.

21. Mr. Kazım Yığit (Turkey, Turkish Employment Institution Representative) briefed the participants on the role of the Ministry of Labor and Social Security of Republic of Turkey on vocational education. He further mentioned that Skills’ 10 Project aims to increase the number of workers with appropriate skills which the manufacturing sector needed. Mr. Yığit also informed the participants on the entrepreneurship courses organized by Turkish Employment Institution in collaboration with Ministry of Science, Industry and Technology of the Republic of Turkey.

22. Ms. Şennur Çetin (Turkey, Ministry of National Education Representative) expressed that all people who completed compulsory education and above 14 can benefit from the formal and non-formal vocational education facilities in Turkey. She further informed participants on the new program prepared by Ministry of National Education within the scope of vocational education including universities.

23. Prof. Serdar Sayan stressed that Skills’ 10 project has been developed to meet the needs for skilled labor of the manufacturing sector. He also stated the importance of providing a certain amount of money -as pocket money- to the trainees during their participation to the courses and he inquired from the representatives of OIC Member Countries whether they have such practices in their vocational education programs.

24. Mr. Azzam Musa Tawfiq Abusoud (Palestine, Jerusalem Chamber of Commerce and Industry Representative) emphasized the importance of developing an education system in universities to fulfill the needs for skilled workforce of the private sector. In this regard, he mentioned that the Jerusalem Chamber of Commerce and Industry developed internship program funded by Islamic Development Bank (IDB) and European Union. Within the scope of that program, Jerusalem Chamber of Commerce and Industry pays one third of the salaries of workers trained and employed by private companies.

25. Mr. Hassan Abdelaal (Egypt, Ministry of Manpower Representative) briefed the participants that a daily stipend/allowance of 10 EGP (per person) has been provided to trainees of vocational education courses for each day they participate in a month.

26. Ms. Şennur Çetin (Turkey, Ministry of National Education Representative) informed the participants about the process of developing vocational education training materials and curriculum by experts from the Ministry of National Education in collaboration with private sector representatives and experts. Ms. Çetin further stated that the Ministry of Education is currently developing a vocational education program and related training materials for Libyan Arab Republic and Islamic Republic of Afghanistan. She also expressed their readiness to collaborate with OIC Member Countries in the field of vocational education and to share experiences of Ministry of National Education of the Republic of Turkey.

27. Mr. Ahmed Hamada (Egypt, Ministry of Education Representative) informed that within the scope of vocational education projects, Egyptian students are provided to pursue their internships upon the completion of their first semester in vocational education schools either in USA or companies that made agreement with those schools.

Working Session II: Implementation Mechanism of Skill 10 Project at Local Level: “Municipal Course Administrations, Decision Mechanism to Open Courses and Local Implementation of the Project”
28. Mr. Nurettin Özdebir, President of Ankara Course Administration and Ankara Chamber of Industry made a presentation in this session. Mr. Özdebir mentioned the dramatic increase of the manufacturing sector’s share in exports of Turkey in the last decade and how it affected the demand of skilled labor force. Mr. Özdebir further stated that people graduate from high schools or universities without any particular skill find opportunity to be employed after participating Skills’ 10 Project courses.

29. In his presentation, Mr. Özdebir informed the participants on what criteria the local courses have been established, the governance mechanism of these courses, the most important challenges faced during the implementation of Skills’ 10 Project and the importance of qualified trainers to encourage youth to attend courses and to create awareness of vocational education.

30. Following his presentation, Mr. Nurettin Özdebir invited participants to give their remarks at the end of the session.

31. Mr. Hassan Abdelaal (Egypt, Ministry of Manpower Representative) inquired about the average age of participants to the local courses. In response, Mr. Özdebir mentioned that the average age of participants is between 25-30 years.

32. Ms. Dorra Cherif (Tunisia, Ministry of Professional Training and Employment Representative) asked about the governance system of Skills’ 10 Project including the joint participation of private and public sectors, the curriculum of the courses and youth perspectives about vocational education and training in Turkey.

33. Mr. Özdebir informed that the administrative body of Ankara courses consists of the representatives of Turkish Employment Agency, Ministry of National Education and Ankara Chamber of Industry. He further stated that the curriculum of the courses is arranged by a board in charge of the modification/revision according to sector based needs. Mr. Özdebir also expressed that societies define what is successful and prestigious. Thus, the values of societies should be underlined which may affect youth perspectives on vocational education and training. Mr. Özdebir ultimately informed that the trainers are chosen according to their field experiences and/or recommendations made by school principals. It is possible to employ experts working in industrial sector as trainers.

34. Mr. Çağatay Gökyay (Turkey, Turkish Employment Agency Representative) mentioned that the stakeholders of Skills’ 10 Project signed a protocol indicating the main responsibilities of each and they evaluate the implementation of the project and try to solve emerging problems in their periodical meetings.

35. Mr. Abdul-Azis Idrisov (Kyrgyz Republic, Ministry of Labor, Employment and Migration Representative) inquired whether Turkey has a program for youth aged below 16 years old. Mr. Özdebir responded that Turkish labor law does not allow people below 16 years old to be employed. Thus, he stressed that the target age group of Skills’ 10 Project is 18-35 years.

36. Mr. Abdi Abdullahi (Islamic Development Bank Representative) underlined the importance of the image of vocational education and training that can negatively affect the participation rate of the training courses. He, in this regard, inquired how Skills’ 10 Project stakeholders addressed the problem of negative image of vocational education among youth. In addition, he asked how the linkages between vocational training institutions and employers have been established.

37. Mr. Nurettin Özdebir stressed the importance of qualified workforce to meet the demands of the labor market and informed participants about the matching process of the Skills’ 10 Project where the candidates are interviewed before starting to take courses as well as private sector representatives are asked about their workforce needs. He also expressed that students graduated with success are generally being recruited in the companies.

38. Mr. Aly Mboup (Senegal, National Union of Chambers of Commerce and Industry Representative) asked about the tax exemptions provided to the partners of Skills’ 10 Project from the private sector. He further inquired the possibility of conducting long-distance education and conferences in continuation of the Study Visit.
39. Prof. Serdar Sayan emphasized that the Turkish government does not receive the social security premiums that has to be paid by employers to facilitate the Project. Besides, Mr. Özdebir stated that long distance education is not feasible since vocational education and training requires practical applications and the industrial zone is crucial in the education process. However, Prof. Sayan mentioned that Turkey can provide long-distance conferences to OIC Member Countries on the theoretical part of the project including the design and implementation with the financial support of IDB Group.

40. Mr. Mohamed Dieng (Senegal, National Agency for Youth Employment Representative) asked the average cost for per students in the scope of Skills’ 10 Project. Mr. Özdebir informed that the average fixed cost of per student for one year is approximately $500 in Turkish case but it decreases as long as the project continues.

41. Mr. Muhammad Iqbal Abbas (Indonesia, National Development Planning Agency Representative) emphasized that the needs of the labor market have been changing according to the developments in technology. In this respect, Mr. Iqbal inquired how the competency of the trainers is maintained in the face of technological changes.

42. Prof. Sayan mentioned while the first round of ‘training of trainers’ was the most difficult part in the project, sustaining the competency of trainers will be much more easier in coming years. In addition, Mr. Özdebir expressed that Turkish Employment Agency has a working group responsible to evaluate the competency of the trainers.

43. Mr. Moute Bidias Camille (Cameroon, National Employment Fund Representative) stressed the importance of private sector participation to such projects and asked about the process of creating linkages between public and private sectors in Skills’ 10 Project. He further inquired about the existence of labor unions in Turkey and their participation to the project. Mr. Özdebir responded that the private sector has been realized their needs of skilled workforce in the last decade so that they voluntarily participated the project. Besides, he stated that Turkey has labor unions but they are not a partner of this project.
44. Mr. Çağatay Gökyay (Turkey, Turkish Employment Agency Representative) informed the participants about the details of the financing process of Skills’ 10 Project.

45. Mr. Mbarek Khaledouni (Morocco, Ministry of Employment and Vocational Training Representative) inquired whether applicants of the project graduated from formal education institutions and in this connection underlined the problem of the current education system generating skill mismatch in the labor market. Mr. Özdebir stressed that all candidates are required to graduate from primary education which lasts 8 years and compulsory in Turkey.
